Individual experiences vary. The Longevity Chamber is a general wellness device. Sessions are a general wellness service for screened adults 18+, with eye protection provided, and are not intended to diagnose, treat, cure, or prevent any disease or condition. Statements on this flyer have not been evaluated by the Food and Drug Administration. Nothing here is medical advice — always consult your healthcare provider about any condition or concern, and never delay or replace medical care because of a wellness session. © RembrandtSquad.com All Rights Reserved
